1) Mr. G. Subba Rao has rendered a qualifying service of 21-2-9; for which the Comptroller reports that a pension not exceeding Rs 41-11-4 is admissible under the rules. His prayer for an enhanced pension has been considered in the Administrative section and the Dewan has ordered that a pension of Rs 53/- may be sanctioned. (Vide page 12 of the notes in G. Dis. 20 of 12-13 herewith put up). The Financial Branch which was consulted was for only condoning the deficiency of 9 months Lord to make up 22 years' qualifying Service, waiving the deduction on account of average and consequently giving a pension of Rs 52-15-5.

3 From Mr C. Subba Rao. 26.9.12 prays for the grant of full pension by counting 3 years out of his British Service and granting him 3 months' privilege leave combined with 6 months' furlough.

7) Mr C. Subba Rao first entered ~~Service~~ Imperial Service on the 15th May 1875, continued therein with certain breaks till 22-4-1891 when he resigned it and entered the Mysore Service. From this date (22-4-1891) he

he continued in the Mysore Service without any interruption and retired therefrom at the age of 57 years on the 30th June 1912. Thus he had put in a qualifying Service of 21-2-9 in Mysore for which the Comptroller reported that he was entitled to a pension not exceeding Rs 41-11-4. p.m.

8) Mr C. Subba Rao's wish is to secure a pension equal to half of his average emoluments for the last three years of his Service ie Rs 72 and odd. For this purpose, he prays in his present petition (1) that 3 years out of his British Service may be added to his Mysore Service as was done in the cases of P. S. Rama Iyengar & others and (2) that the deficiency to make up 25 years so as to entitle him to the pension he prays for may be made good by the grant of 3 months' privilege leave combined with 6 months furlough.

9) When first his retirement from 1st July 1911 was ordered in the the G.O. of the 9th May 1911, he represented the state of his case by means of a petition and prayed that 5 years (by which his Mysore Service then fell short of 25 years) out of his British Service might be added to his Mysore Service and he be given a pension equal to a moiety of his pay. He then quoted the cases of P.S. Ramaiengar and others as precedents. The then Ld Secy Mr C.S. Balasundaram Iyer noted as follows and sought the opinion of the Financial Department.

"Subba Rao's case is very similar to that of P.S. Ramaiengar and G. Krishna Rao and the concession which was granted to Ramaiengar in 1900 and which would have been granted to Krishna Rao if he had lived, viz counting 3 years of British Service as qualifying for pension, may be granted to Subba Rao. As noted by the Asst Secretary the concession will incidently relieve him from the operation of art: 341 M.S.R also. The concession would be well merited as Mr Subba Rao has worked very satisfactorily in the different capacities he has served in

(Sd) C.S.B. 22/5/11.

(Vide page 8 of the notes in G.M. 180-10)

The Financial Secretary thereupon recorded his opinion as follows:—

"Under the strict letter of the rules a pension for 20 years' Service Subject to deduction of $\frac{7}{40}$ths for average will be admissible. The Service can be made up to 21 years under art: 293. M.S.R at the discretion of Govt.

If more than the above amount is to be given, it will have to be under art: 501. M.S.R. There are no sufficient grounds to bring this art: into requisition."

(Sd) J.S.C. 31-5-11.

(Vide page 11 of the notes in G.M. 180-10).

The case was then submitted to the Dewan for orders with the following recommendations.

"I would strongly recommend that this case may be dealt with in the same manner as that of

P. S. Ramaiengar and the deduction under art: 341. M.S.R. also waived as a special case."

(Jud) C.S. 13. 20-6-11.

(Vide page 11 of the notes in G.M. 180-10).

The Dewan ordered as follows:—

"To make concessions is difficult

He may be kept on

Accordingly his retention in Service for another year was sanctioned. (Vide G.O. No. G. 7655 / G.M. 180-10 dt: 30-6-11). and he was finally retired from Service from 1-7-1912.

10) By the grant of this extension in Service, his qualifying Mysore Service amounted to 21-2-9. In May 1912, Mr. C. Subba Rao again moved his case and prayed

(i) to grant him one year's extension of Service

(ii) to allow him to count 3 years of British Service

(iii) waive the deduction on account of arrear.

The Dewan refused to grant him an extension. Thereupon the Financial Dept was again consulted as to whether Mr.

Mr C Subba Rao prayed can be granted. They said that the deduction on account of average might be waived, that his qualifying Service of 21-2-9 might be brought to the round figure of 22 yrs by condoning the deficiency of 9 months and 21 days under art: 289. and that the pension to which Mr Subba Rao would then be entitled to viz Rs 52-15-5 might be granted. The Dewan agreed to the opinion of the H. Department. and ordered as follows:-

"I think that a pension of Rs 52-15-5 Say Rs 53/- may be sanctioned".

Accordingly Rs 53 has now been sanctioned to him.

11) Summarizing what all Mr C. Subba Rao asked and what all has been given to him, it would be apparent that

(a) His retirement from 1-7-11 was ordered. He then asked for 5 years of his British Service being added to his Mysore Service Instead of granting this, one years extension was granted to him

(b) He then asked for another year's extension of Service. Instead of this, the deficiency of 9 mths and 21 days in his qualifying Service was condoned and his total Service was ~~brought~~ made up to ~~24~~ 22 years.

(c) He asked for the deduction on account of average being remained. This was granted.

12/ Now the only prayer that has not been granted is that 3 years of his British Service should be added to his Mysore Service. With regard to this, it should be stated that it is inadmissible under the rules. But to grant it is within the discretion of Govt. depending upon the merits of each individual case. It was so done in the case of P. S. Rama-~~chandra~~ Iyengar. The then Secretary Mr C. Sreenivasiengar observed in the case as follows:— "This being a hard case, Govt can of course show the official in question such special consideration as they may deem him deserving of". Similarly on examining examining the merits of the present case, it would be apparent that Mr. C. Subba Rao's case is equally a hard one. The undersecretary Mr. P. G. D'Souza under whom Mr. C. Subba Rao worked has remarked as follows:—

"Mr. C. Subba Rao's case is a hard one. His abilities are of a high order and he deserved to rise much higher in Service than he has done. It was his intimate knowledge of Forest work that led to his permanent retention either in the Secretariat or the Conservator's office. Under these circs his request to be allowed to count a part of his British Service for pension or the grant of a Special pension under art: 501. deserves favorable consideration."

The General Secy Mr. C. S. Balasundaram Iyer, the Head of the office has remarked that "Subba Rao's case is very similar to that of P. S. Ramaiengar x x x x x x

The concession would be well-merited as Subba Rao has worked very satisfactorily in the different capacities he has served in." × × ××

I would strongly recommend that this case may be dealt with in the same manner as that of P.S. Ramaiengar."

Mysore Service after me have been granted the concession prayed for by me. When I submitted my representation on this behalf in 1894, the present Dewan, who was then Chief Secretary, recommended my case for the favorable consideration of the then Dewan. Owing to changes in the administration and several other causes final orders were not passed on my application and I believe it is still pending. In the course of my long service of 37 years ~~and~~ in several capacities and latterly as Superintendent of the Revenue Branch I have come across several cases in which the Govt of His Highness have generously vouchsafed their protection. I have reached the end of my service without any black mark. Except a few months privilege leave on Medical certificate I enjoyed no leisure. I had hard work in the Plague season. While most of the clerks went on leave I had to toil hard. During the Dasara season I had double work for several years. In connection with the marriage of His Highness the Yuvaraja and for my work in the last Census I have been granted special certificates along with others. In Madras it has been the practice to grant privilege leave preparatory to retirement though it is not allowed in the Civil Service Regulations. Though I am entitled to both privilege leave and furlough, owing to exigencies of service I was not allowed to press my application.

In the light of these facts I humbly and respectfully beg that you will kindly reconsider your remarks in my case

Sir,

In continuation of my representation to the Dewan, dated the 25th May 1912, praying for the grant of one years' extension of service and for the grant of three years of my British service to enable me to earn my full pension of Rs 750/, I respectfully beg to submit the following additional facts for your kind and generous consideration: —

Unlike the officers quoted in my representation and several others to whom the concession of three years of British service has been granted I never left Mysore since my entertainment in 1875. It was an accident that I was taken to the Residency in 1881 when it was formed and ever since I was anxious to get back to Mysore and I did not succeed in my attempt till 1891. I believe that W Standish Lee and other officers who were serving in the Civil and Military station of Bangalore like me were allowed to count their service there and no deductions were made in their pension on account of overage. People who entered and ~~the~~ recommend the concession of three or four years out of my ten years Residency service and the grant of three months privilege leave combined with six months furlough as a special case.

These two concessions will enable me to earn my full pension of Rs 757 which will save me and my large family from misery in my old age.

Humbly trusting that my hard case will receive merciful consideration at your generous hands.

I beg to remain
Sir
Your most obedient servant,
